UB DIVING CAMP COACHING STAFF

RUSS DEKKER – Russ is the Head Diving Coach at UB and brings 18 years of Division I coaching experience to this years camp. Russ is also the Head Coach of Wings Diving Club, our age group program here at UB.

JOSH LARCOM – Josh is a coach for Wings Diving Club and as well as the Head Diving Coach at Niagara University.

EDDIE QUARANTILLO – Eddie is a recent graduate of Canisius College where he was a stand out diver. Eddie is also an Associate Head Coach of the Wings Diving Club. Eddie brings a wealth of knowledge to us from his time training under John Wingfield.

HELEN GRINSTEAD – Helen is one of New Yorks finest high school diving coaches. Helen is a coach for the Wings Diving Program and has a wealth of experience coaching all levels of diving. Helen will serve as our Head Dorm Authority for the resident campus.

TOM PAPP – Tom is a high school and age group coach that comes to us from Michigan. Tom has been involved in diving nearly his entire lifetime and had been instrumental at UB diving camp for teaching everyone how to get over their fears and get the dives that their list is missing.

KRIS SANTOS – Kris is a former UB diver and Wings Diving Club coach. He is the current diving coach at Bryant University.

UB DIVERS – There will be many current UB divers here as both coaches as well as camp counselors. They will bring great experience to our camp due to the fact that they are currently in the prime of the diving careers.

RUSS DEKKER

Russ Dekker begins his fourth season as the Head Diving Coach for the University at Buffalo. During his first three seasons the divers showed tremendous improvement, adding a significant amount of team points at the MAC Championships. The 2018 season was highlighted with Abbey Croce qualifying for the NCAA Championships.

Prior to his arrival at UB, Dekker spent the last 11 years as the Head Diving Coach at Ohio University.

While with the Bobcats, Dekker coached two MAC Champions, one MAC Diver of the Year and one Scholar Athlete of the Year. He also coached multiple MAC finalists and his divers earned 15 school records.

Prior to Ohio, Dekker completed three seasons as the men's and women's diving coach at the University of Wyoming. During his tenure in Laramie, the Cowboys and Cowgirls established themselves as one of the elite diving programs in the Mountain West Conference, highlighted by six divers qualifying for the 2004 NCAA Zone E Championships. Wyoming divers routinely were named to the all-conference team under Dekker's tutelage.

Dekker began his coaching career as the head diving coach at Ypsilanti High School from 1996-2001. At Ypsilanti, he coached two state champions and two state runner-ups. Dekker also served as an assistant coach for Legacy Diving from 2000-01, where he coached 11 Junior National qualifiers, three Senior National qualifiers, two Junior National finalists and a Junior National runner-up.
